EVIL UNITED/Honored By Fire (MVD Audio) This is this band's 2nd release and it is quite a release as this contains a ton of metal on it. Crushing riffs, soaring vocals and backed by some pure fist pumping metal that had me smiling. No nu metal, no groove, just straight forward heavy metal the way metal should be. I love the guitar sound on this as it had me banging my head in seconds. Jason the singer has a fantastic voice and he puts it to use on this as he sings with tons of feeling and power to boot. This is just a spectacular metal release and if your into say Judas Priest, then you'll be doing backflips over this. Info:
