

Fango fave Brad Dourif gets to play in mad-doctor territory in MALIGNANT, and we've got the exclusive word on its forthcoming DVD release, along with a first look at the cover art.

MVD Visual will give MALIGNANT its disc debut February 17, featuring a 16×9 transfer and 5.1 sound. In the film, Dourif plays a sinister medico who puts a grieving alcoholic (Gary Cairns) through a twisted 12-step program to "cure" him. Writer/director Brian Avenet-Bradley tells us, "The DVD will include 'Surgery for the Soul,' an exclusive 38-minute documentary featuring interviews with Gary and Brad and the filmmakers, plus never-seen-before behind-the-scenes footage of actors in action, candid moments, special effects and more. I'm really happy with 'Surgery,' because it goes way beyond the typical behind-the-scenes extra. There's stuff in there for everyone and some amazing, candid moments with Gary and Brad." Read some words from Dourif on MALIGNANT here.

Sharing is caring!

14

127

You may also like:

Q&A: Scary Movies 7 Curators
Laura Kern and Gavin Smith

"THE TOWN THAT DREADED
SUNDOWN" Remake Premiering
on EPIX this Halloween

Toronto: Top Five Flicks to Catch
at Blood in the Snow 2013