Follow the bunny boy through the boxes full of Armageddon - Kickface Boy

Bunny is missing! Poor Bunny. We all love him so, but has he gone completely mad? No, not Bunny. What are all these curious and oddities left behind? What does this mean? What if it's true? It's infecting my dreams! I hate fever dream!

Bunny's room is his room, his secret room that only he understands. Oh the marvelous things in this secret room, things that only he can understand, things hung with such delicacy and care. Where have you gone Bunny? Is the government after you? You want to use my name? Well, I do like bunnies. Bunny you are insane.

Do I have it all wrong? Did I deceive myself? There he is, the Golden Guy! The Golden Guy is in the news. My poor Bunny has run away. "Mommy will you help bring back Bunny", I cried with tears running down my cheeks.

I hate you Bunny. In my dreams I kill you. In my dreams I kill my brother Harvey. I've done it countless times. I want to torture him. I want to tie him to a chair helpless, as I duct tape a vacuum hose to his mouth. I want to suck all the air out of him and watch him struggle against the power of the merciless machine.

What was the secret message Bunny? Now the papers know who I am. Is it all real? What is lost in the island sun? Lost in Patmos?

It's waiting for me isn't it? I won't look behind me. I won't look into the black behind. The others can get sucked in, those who are careless enough to look. Not me. I won't look. I know better.

BUNNY!!!
