Grant Hart On Thursday!

Whoa — dunno how we missed this until now, but former Husker Du drummer turned singer-songwriter Grant Hart is playing upstairs at World Cafe Live on Thursday. While Husker Du frontman Bob Mould always gets tons of credit (and fairly so) for that band's greatness, it must be said that the frequently overlooked Hart wrote (and sang on) some of their best songs ("Diane," "Never Talking to You Again," "Pink Turns to Blue," "The Girl Who Lives on Heaven Hill," "Keep Hanging On," "It's Not Funny Anymore," etc.). And his solo career — while interrupted by periods of long inactivity — has spawned at least a couple of great recordings, including 1988's 2541 EP and his just-released Hot Wax LP. This has all the makings of a really good show. It starts at 9pm; tix are $13.

Saw him on Monday in Toronto – excellent show. Many, many Husker Du songs plus a lot of solo and Nova Mob. Go – you won't be disappointed.
