For those who may not know, Grant Hart was one third of the legendary '80s band Hüsker Dü. Hart played drums for Hüsker Dü and developed into an accomplished songwriter during the life of the band. Tensions between Hart and Bob Mould led to the implosion of the Hüskers in 1987, but it's not hard to spot the influence they had on latter day bands like the Pixies, Superchunk, and Nirvana.

After the demise of Hüsker Dü, Grant Hart has gone on to release some great solo albums as well as a few with his band Nova Mob. The only disappointing aspect of Hart's post-Hüsker career has been the dearth of material that he's released. Hart's latest album, Hot Wax was released a full 10 years after it's predecessor (Good News For Modern Man). Yikes!

Hart's Record Collector set was short but sweet, focusing on Hot Wax but also including a couple of Hüsker Dü classics as well as a Mose Allison cover.

Here's a sample MP3 and the FLACs are available below:

If you have a cool local music shop like The Record Collector you'll be able to find Hot Wax (as well as Grant Hart's other albums). If not, it's available at Amazon on CD (and the MP3 download even includes a bonus "Amazon Exclusive" track).
