

a DVD, a comic book and even a ViewMaster. Stevens also joins fellow songwriters Rosie Thomas, Damien Jurado and Denison Witmer in director Matt Boyd's All the Way from Michigan Not Mars flick, which will materialize on DVD Oct. 27.

Oct. 6 is the day former Husker Du drummer Grant Hart will regale you with his sixth solo long-player, Hot Wax. Recorded in Montreal and Minneapolis, the outing unites Hart with members of godspeed you black emperor!, Silver Mt. Zion, and Rank Strangers.

If you've been wondering what the hell happened to Coolio, he's playing such notable venues as Deli Zone in Longmont, Colorado, where he pretended to be shot during "Gangster's Paradise" and called the audience a bunch of "alcoholics."

Mr. Coolio

DJ AM (nee Adam Goldstein), who was more famous for balling Nicole Richie and surviving a plane crash with Travis Barker than anything else really, was found dead in his Manhattan apartment Aug. 28. Law-enforcement officers revealed that a crack pipe was found near his body and Oxycontin in his system. Goldstein was 36 and had recently signed on for an MTV series about teenage addiction and intervention. Score one for irony...

Ryan Adams has paused from his compulsive masturbating to relaunch his Pax Am imprint on the Internets. As he said in a statement, "This is my label and my Internet disco dream. Make it real you jerks. Worship me." Yeah, fuck you too.

In further news, Kanye West needs a dick in the ear. ☹
