Incredible String Band DVD Due

Fred Mills
July 16, 2007

Coming on August 28 from MVD Visual is The Incredible String Band—Live at the Lowry, a concert film recorded September 27, 2003 in Salford Quay (England). The UK freak-folk godfathers are caught onstage essaying material from their first five classic albums from the '60s and '70s; included is a fiddle and pipe medley and an exclusive interview with the band.

No less an authority than Record Collector Magazine describes the footage as "professionally shot, [an] unabridged and honest record, with good sound... The show will doubtless delight the faithful."
