

:: news , reviews and opinion :: since 2001 :: online at clickyclickymusic.com ::

:: 10.10.2007

Review: Bob Mould | Circle Of Friends [DVD]

More so than any other concert film we've watched in recent memory, the new Bob Mould DVD "Circle Of Friends" conveys the feeling that you are actually at the show. We don't mean to say that the experience is flawless; it feels a lot like being close to the stage, but maybe off to one side. This is primarily because, curiously, "Circle Of Friends" doesn't feature a single straight-on shot of Mr. Mould while he is performing. All the tight "one shots" of the storied songwriter are shot up from the floor of the venue. It's an oddity in an otherwise very good film.

Shot at the final gig of a six-week tour in 2005 at the 9:30 Club in Mould's most recent hometown Washington, D.C., "Circle Of Friends" captures Mould reconciling with his guitar-heavy past. The show is surprisingly devoid of the dance-oriented sounds that captivated the former Husker Du and Sugar fronter in recent years, despite the fact that his DJ partner Richard Morel (a/k/a just plain old Morel) plays keys as part of the touring band. Rounding out the combo is ace Fugazi skin pounder Brendan Canty and the very able bassist and backing singer Jason Narducy, whose contributions go a long way to fill out the live sound.

Another thing we didn't expect was the pre-show interviews with each of the players, which combine into a little featurette about how Mould rounded up the members of his backing band. But the real show here is the combo's vibrant, angsty performances. It takes a few songs for Mould and Co. to really nail the groove (which is too bad, as cataclysmic opener "The Act We Act," the lead cut on Sugar's electrifying debut and a :: clicky clicky :: favorite, would have shone more brightly later in the set) but once that happens -- around the solo in "Paralyzed" -- the performance is a series of air-tight, no-nonsense (no stage patter, either), gloriously heavy rock songs.

Highlights include the surprising guitar work on the fretboard during the solo of "Hoover Dam" and the slowed-down, subdued version of "Hardly Getting Over It." The quiet treatment for that latter tune deftly sets up well-time dynamic explosions in the last verse. And then the song steps directly into a one-two punch of Husker Du classics, "Could You Be The One?" and then a soaring version of "I Apologize."

:: Jay Breitling, Editor

:: Cambridge, Massachusetts

:: Facebook :: Hype :: Last.FM ::

:: MySpace :: RSS Feed :: Virb ::

Mr. Breitling has also dreamed up and properly ordered words for Webnoize, Listen.com, Information Security magazine, America Online, Junkmedia, Splendid, Junkmedia's World of Sound blog and Two And A 1/2 Pounds Of Bacon. :: clicky clicky :: has been featured in the tangible, old media -- check it out: 1, 2, 3.

MP3s are posted for a limited time and are for evaluation purposes only. Please support independent artists and independent music retailers. If you would like a song file to be removed, send us an email and we will remove it immediately.

We recommend Firefox 2.0 and a screen resolution of 1400 by 1050 pixels for the optimal enjoyment of :: clicky clicky music blog ::

Now Sound Faves

An insert in the DVD case promotes Mould's forthcoming set District Line, which will be released in January on Anti. According to the ad, the record contains "memorable melodies, heart-heavy lyrics, plenty of guitars." It's little surprise that that's exactly what "Circle Of Friends" delivers as well. Mould began a tour promoting the DVD release in Chicago Tuesday night; there were apparently some problems with "DVD playback," according to one his most recent blog posts, but we're certain any kinks will be worked out by the time Mould hits the Paradise Lounge in Boston

Nov. 5. Full promo tour dates are below. Buy "Circle Of Friends" from MVD right here.

Bob Mould: Internets | MySpace | YouTube | Flickr

- 10/10 -- Bryant Lake Bowl -- Minneapolis, Minnesota
- 10/12 -- Chop Suey -- Seattle, Washington
- 10/14 -- Doug Fir Lounge -- Portland, Oregon
- 10/16 -- Herbst Theater -- San Francisco, California
- 10/17 -- The Roxy Theater -- Hollywood, California
- 10/20 -- Lincoln Theater -- Washington, Washington DC
- 10/20 -- 9:30 Club -- Washington, Washington DC
- 11/02 -- Highline Ballroom -- New York, New York
- 11/05 -- Paradise Lounge -- Boston, Massachusetts
- 11/08 -- Gravity Lounge -- Charlottesville, Virginia
- 11/10 -- John & Peter's -- New Hope
- 11/11 -- World Cafe Live -- Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
- 11/17 -- 9:30 Club -- Washington, DC
- 12/08 -- Highline Ballroom -- New York, New York
- 12/15 -- 9:30 Club -- Washington, DC

Labels: Bob Mould, Brendan Canty, Fugazi, Husker Du, Morel, Sugar

(+ del.icio.us)   1 comments   links to this post
posted by jbreitling @ 10/10/2007 09:52:00 PM

1 Comments:

At 10/16/2007 09:25:00 PM, Rinjo Njori thus spaketh...

It may be selfish but Bob with a Guitar beats out Bob with a sampler and two turntables. He might feel pigeonholed, but pretty much all his (guitar) work is flawless.

Post a Comment

Links to this post:

Create a Link

<< Home

tourb.us shows

Monday 10/22

Art Brut/The Hold Steady @ The Roxy

Tuesday 10/23

The New Pornographers @ The Roxy

Wednesday 10/24

Shout Out Louds/Johnossi/... @ Paradise Rock Club

Thursday 10/25

The Beatings/Scuba/Pendin... @ Great Scott

Monday 10/29

Boris @ The Middle East \(Downstairs\)

more at clickyclicky's profile

Earlier

Today's Hotness: Comedy Minus One and Karl Hendric...

Today's Hotness: Tempertwig, Naxos, Joy Division

Greys Over America: Frightened Rabbit Prep Next U...

That Was The Show That Was: Dirty On Purpose | Mid...

That Was The Show That Was: Yo La Tengo | Coolidge...

[Review: Meneguar | Strangers In Our House \[MP3\]](#)

Today's Hotness: All The Same Acts We're Always On...

Today's Hotness: Fall Release Mini-Spectacular

Mobius Band With "Friends Like These"

Review: Pinback | Autumn Of The Seraphs [Stream]

146 BLOGTOPSITES    BLOGGER    GET FIREFOX

MAPSTARTS    MY BLOG LOG    52 readers
BY FEEDBURNER

Technorati

Del.icio.us

amazon                      Apple
 copyright digital DRM
 EMI Google IFPI indie industry                      InRainbows internet iPod iTunes
 license Microsoft mp3
 MySpace                      Napster
 NewsCorp                      Radiohead
 sales SonyBMG UMG
 Viacom Video wireless
 WMG YouTube

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution, Noncommercial, No Derivative Works 2.5 License.