Bob Mould [tickets] has arranged a series of shows this fall combining music and talk around the release of his first live concert DVD, "Circle of Friends."

Set to kick off in Chicago on Oct. 9--the same day the DVD hits stores--the tour will combine a short acoustic set, a live question-and-answer session with fans, and a screening of the disc, along with an opportunity for fans to purchase the DVD and have it signed by Mould.

The tour will hit 11 cities, with the Oct. 16 date also being co-presented by San Francisco's Noise Pop Festival, a week-long indie event featuring Ted Leo and the Pharmacists, Sebadoh, Cake and many others. For more information, see the festival's website.

"Circle of Friends" captures Mould's Oct. 7, 2005 concert at Washington's 9:30 Club. Backed by Richard Morel, Jason Narducy and Fugazi drummer Brendan Canty, the show (and DVD) features compositions from throughout Mould's career, including songs from Husker Du and Sugar as well as his own solo work.

According to Mould's publicist, the singer/songwriter will release a new studio album on Anti Records in January of next year, his first since 2005's "Body of Song."
