NEWSPAPER OF THE TWIN CITIES

February 28, 2008

After a six-year hiatus, Bob Mould went back to fronting a loud rock band and even played a bevy of old tunes on his 2005 tour, documented on last year's "Circle of Friends" DVD. The former Hüsker Dü and Sugar frontman is also making full-on rock albums again -- including the classic-sounding new one, "District Line." He and his band will kick off their tour in his former hometown. Read an interview with Mould in Vita.mn or Sunday's Arts section. (8 p.m. Wed., First Avenue. 18 & older. $15.) (C.R.)
