Bernie Worrell nominated for DVD of the year at Jammy Awards

"Stranger: Bernie Worrell on Earth" has been nominated for DVD of the year at the 2008 Jammy Awards. The documentary, featuring interviews with some of the most notable names in modern music (Byrne, Clinton, etc), captures the life and sounds of Bernie Worrell: the overlooked and eccentric musical mastermind who has been compared to Beethoven, Charlie Parker, and Jimi Hendrix.

Produced by Relix Magazine, Jambands.com, and Peter Shapiro, The Jammys has become one of New York City's premiere events and one of the top grassroots music events in the world, hosting countless historic, once-in-a-lifetime musical moments, and drawing international acclaim for pairing the stars of the improvisational music scene with leading artists from across the musical spectrum.

Fans can vote for the Jammys at www.jammys.com. "Like the scene that it celebrates the Jammys is a true grassroots event. Ever since Year One, the awards have been voted upon by the discerning ears of the fans," explains the event's co-founder, Dean Budnick, editor-in-chief of Jambands.com and senior editor of Relix, who has overseen the nomination process since the outset.
