DVD Review - Method Man

Live From the Sunset Strip

MVD

I was not at his recent performance at Plush, so I can't say if it lived up to his "live standards" by this show. As he himself declares, "No one rocks a Mutherfuckin' stage like I do!", and this is a lesson in athletic showmanship.

Leaping across the stage in his Air Nikes, crowd surfing, fake ejaculating and blazing blunts continuously, Meth embodies everything that makes the Wu great. Fellow Clan brothers Masta Killa and Inspecta Deck join in for the classic bangers and the ODB tribute, and hype man Streetlife backs Meth's flows seamlessly.

Sure, he only spits the first half of most lines and there is some drag in the middle before the second blunt is lit, but it's all about endurance and Meth unleashes some serious flows and the intensity of his voice never wavers. Crowd response is not overwhelming, but enough so that he can walk off the stage onto their hands.

Of course, the best part is when he swallows the lit end of a blunt and brings it back still burning. There...I spoiled it for you.
