The Dirty South 2
Digital Wunderland

I'm so down for the D.I.Y. surf flicks. I'm a fan of most everything that Digital Wunderland does in this genre. I trust that when I see a DW flick that I will get good music, up-to-date action, underground ripping, and all the stars of the East Coast surf scene doing what they do best—rip in waves ranging from shit to pretty damn good. If you're into East Coast action and like to watch the best crews from North Carolina, Virginia, Florida, and the surrounding areas, check out The Dirty South 2—you may just want to take your next surf trip to Cape Hatteras. And if you missed the first Dirty South, it's included as a bonus on the disc.—C.C.

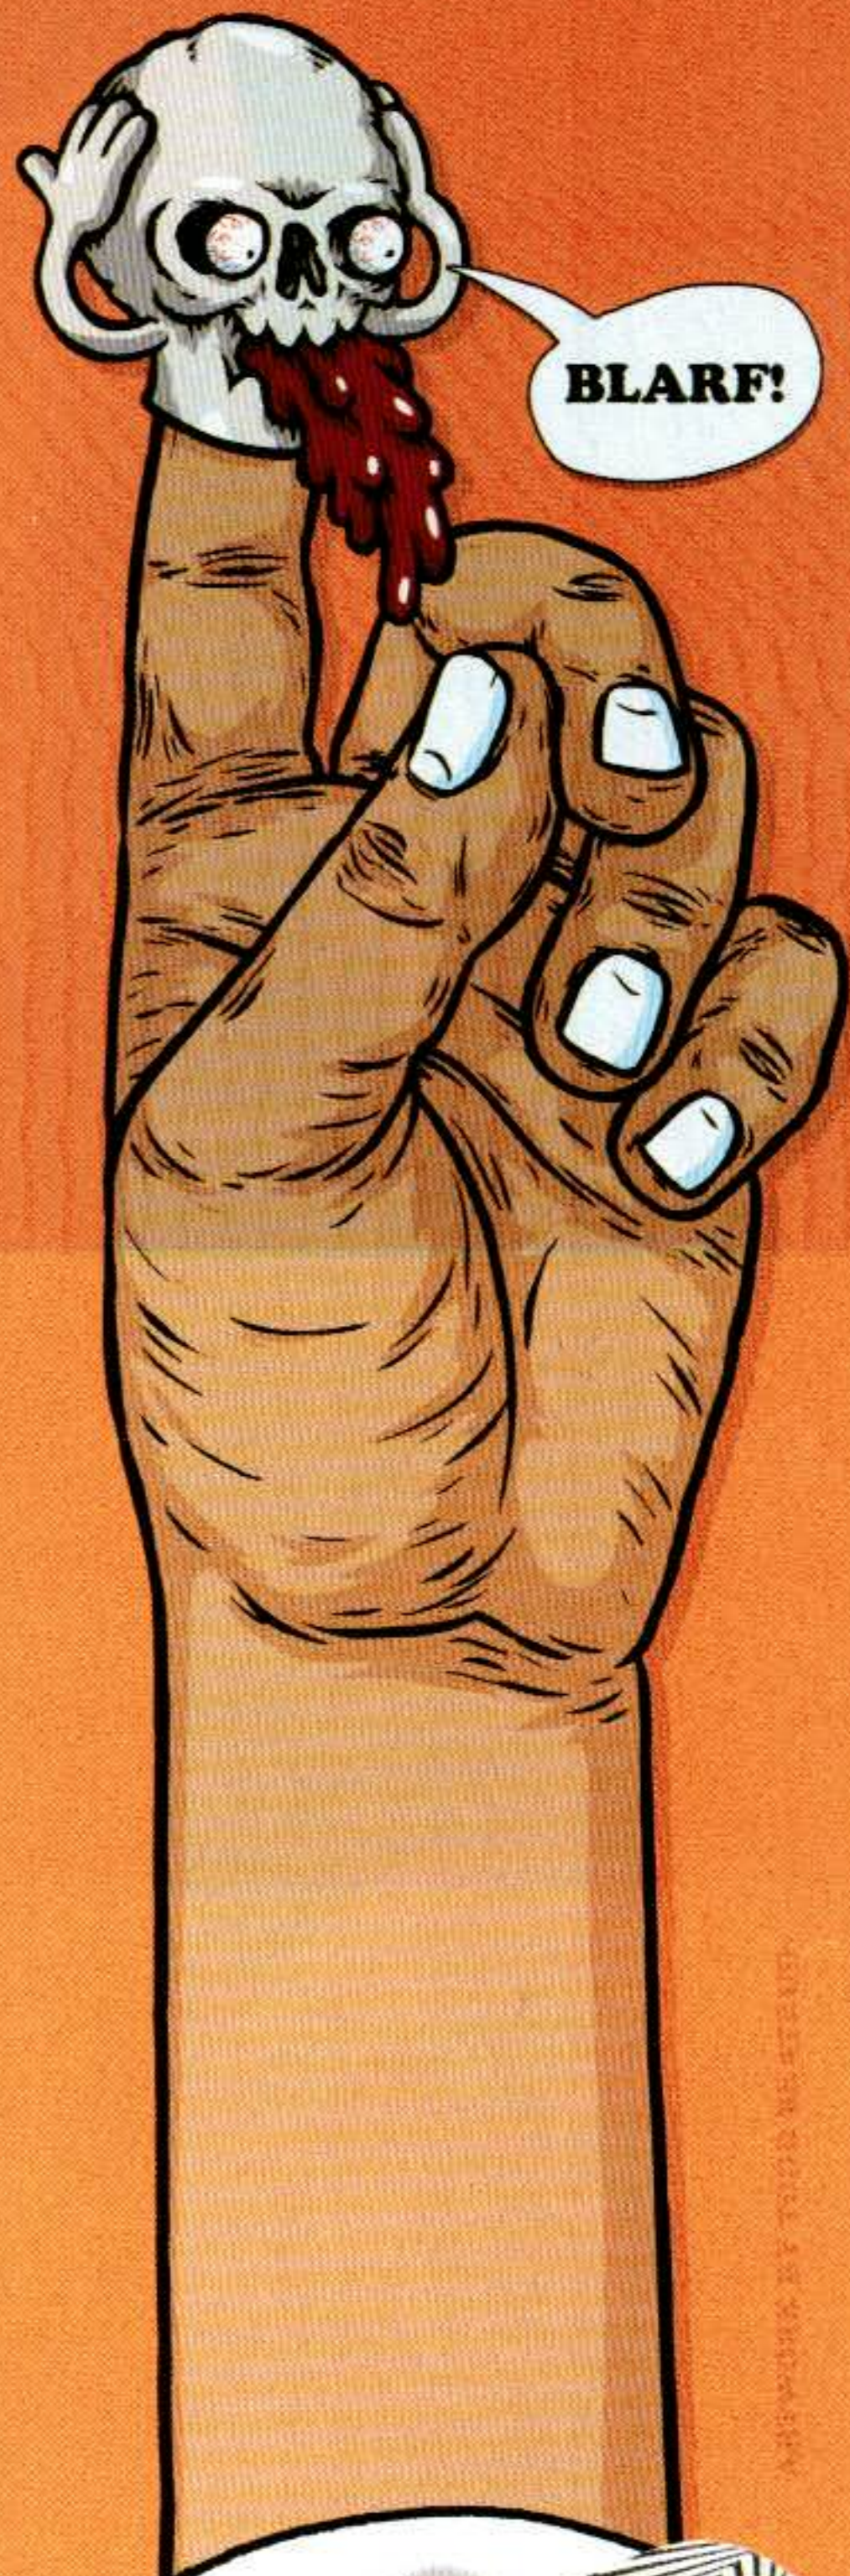

METHOD MAN

Live From The Sunset Strip (HD)

MVD

You might be scared to go to a Method Man concert—if you are, don't be. His concerts are more like parties than scary gangster rap shows. On this live HD DVD, you can almost smell the weed smoke puffing out from half the lungs of the crowd and you may even get a contact high through your TV, which is perfectly legal. The hit list on the disc is awesome, including such bangers as "Ice Cream," "All I Need," "Triumph," "How High," "Wu-Tang Clan Ain't Nuthin' To F-k Wit," and many many more. If you like Method Man, what are you waiting for? Pop this HD biscuit into your player and swing a towel over your head!—C.C.
