'Johnny Winter: Live Through the '70s' DVD...

DVD set for October 28 release: Mark your calendars, folks. On the heels of the success of the first three installments of the Live Bootleg CD series, Johnny has decided to open his video vaults as well. And this upcoming release is a remarkable official collection of performance footage from around the globe.

This DVD offers an array of footage from the '70s, including performances from Danish TV "Gladsaxe Teen Club" (Denmark 1970); the Royal Albert Hall in London (1970); the Beat Club in Bremen, Germany (1970); Don Kirshner's Rock Concert - Palace Theater in Waterbury, Connecticut (1973); Soundstage - Blues Summit in Chicago (1974); Musikladen in Bremen, Germany (1974); and Rockpalast in Germany (1979). Intermixed with the live content is interview footage at Detroit Tubeworks in Detroit (1970). This is indeed the definitive document of Johnny's career in the '70s!
