

THE GLOBE AND MAIL
CANADA'S NATIONAL NEWSPAPER • FOUNDED 1844

Before singer Cat Stevens became Yusuf Islam, he delivered a mellow half-hour concert before a tiny, rapt audience in Los Angeles, a performance now released by MVD Visual as A Classic Concert: Cat Stevens - Tea for the Tillerman Live (1971). In a bonus animated short called Teaser and the Firecat, a boy and his cat use the moon as a surfboard while Stevens sings Moonshadow and Spike Milligan narrates in his best Goon Show-ish voice.

- WARREN CLEMENTS