

The Beatles — Magical Mystery Tour Memories

Release date: Sept. 30

Details: 2008, MVD Visual

Rated: Not rated

The lowdown: A documentary that basically talks to many of the people involved or witness to the making of the Beatles' movie, "The Magical Mystery Tour" in 1967.

Unfortunately, while there is 8mm home movie footage and nice recollections from fans, onlookers and movie cast members, there are no Beatles.

Don't miss: Stories about the Beatles by others, including Mike McCartney, Paul's brother, but again, no living Beatle is involved.
