Barack Obama:
The Power of Change

(Rockcity Ent.)

McCain supporters stay away! This DVD is not for the red of heart.

If you're looking for quick insight into the early campaign speeches of Barack Obama, this is the video. It also shows excerpts of other people's speeches about Obama.

The speakers include Stevie Wonder, Caroline Kennedy and, of course, Oprah Winfrey. The DVD does share some inside facts about the life of Obama, such as how he turned down many high paying job offers to work for the community. However, the structure of the DVD leaves one thinking a small child cut and pasted some images together.
