Barack Obama: The Power of Change (on DVD only)

Witness the grassroots movement to elect Senator Barack Obama to the office of the President. Regardless of what party affiliation you may fall into, it's hard to deny what a truly amazing ride it has been, riddled with its fair share of bumps along the way. This documentary takes you inside the campaign, with guest stars like Oprah Winfrey, Caroline Kennedy and Stevie Wonder discussing why they've chosen to follow Mr. Obama. It'll probably only appeal to those likely to vote for Obama, but it's still an extraordinary tale with a certain "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" flavor.
