GG ALLIN is a true original! And watching it brought back some funny memories I remember when the White Trash Debutantes played with GG ALLIN at The Covered Wagon in San Francisco in the late 80's... We were sitting around backstage watching him eat Pork n Beans.. He seemed so nice and very polite.. Then he took the stage Tables, Chairs and all kinds of Shit Started flying... And I do mean SHIT that is why- he was eating beans backstage... At that particular show GG singled out poor Jane Weems as his victim.. Tossing her around like a Rag Doll from one side of the stage to the other... Breaking her glasses, with all sorts of bruises .. In fact it was a video taken at that gig that helped Jane collect insurance $$.. Poor Insane Jane!

After the show, his brother Merle photographed GG between myself and Jello Biafra.. We were all smiles until we left backstage released we also smelled like SHIT!! But it was all fun.. We did not have black eyes and bruises..

A few years later.... I saw GG and his East Bay Female counter part the late Marion Anderson and The Insaints perform at a club in San Francisco where they held Bondage A Go Go.. Now that was a real show.. I must say... Marion held her own.. If memory serves right they did NOT get along well with one another.

This MVD displays all of GG's most disgusting moments on stage- plus an added bonus... An exclusive interview with GG's Mother. I would much rather watch this MVD of GG Allin than "For The Love of Ray J" or "Rock Of Love" which both makes you wanna vomit. Just because they just suck..

As the notes on the MVD say, "GG's spirit will live on in the underground until mankind is destroyed... "
