

MARTY BALIN — LIVE AT THE BOSTON
ESPLANADE, JUNE 14,
2008 (DVD)
*MVDvisual

Rock & Roll Hall of Famer Marty Balin, formerly of The Jefferson Airplane and The Jefferson Starship, is one of the key personalities of the San Franciscan sound that also launched The Grateful Dead, Quicksilver Messenger Service, Steve Miller Band and Janis Joplin. Recorded on June 14, 2008 here at Boston's beautiful Hatch Shell. This solo DVD from Balin features "Volunteers," "3/5ths of a Mile in Ten Seconds," "White Rabbit," "Somebody to Love" with Didi Stewart on vocals), plus a version of Balin singing the latter song as a solo. Along with "Today" and "Summer of Love," as well as Balin's Starship hits "Miracles," "Count on Me," "Runaway," along with his 1980 solo hit "Hearts," and a cover of Bruce Cockburn's "If I Had a Rocket