Ex Drummer (2007) (Palisades Tartan) - Based on writer Herman Brusselmans novel, this dark and disturbing 2007 Belgian import tells of a trio of moronic misfits who decide to form a rock group and follow in the footsteps of their drug-addicted rocker icons. In need of a drummer, they ask a renowned writer to be their stick man. Sure, he's a worse drummer than Ringo, but that doesn't prevent these losers from worshipping him. Soon, the writer begins to manipulate his new followers into doing whatever sick and bizarre things he might come up with (kind of like our own US-based media managers). Pretty rough stuff. Who says the only good thing to come out of Belgium is chocolate and beer (although I'm quite fond of those little movie posters, personally)?

The Adventures Of Electra Elf: The Complete Series (2004-2008) (MVD Visual) - Whether you go to the video store in search of comedy, horror, or good ol' porn, sometimes, you just want to watch something. And with The Adventures Of Electra Elf, that's exactly what you get: something. Originating as a Brooklyn public access series in 2004, The Adventures Of Electra Elf tells of mild-mannered ASS (Art Star Scene) Magazine reporter Jennifer Swallows, who by night battles the terrors of the city as Electra Elf with her sidekick, Fluffer. MVD presents the oddball Nick Zedd-directed series in its entirety, with a generous helping of special features to boot. Sure, it sounds downright stupid, but if it came down between this and Pauly Shore's Adopted, which would you choose?

I thought so.

Happy viewing, kids!
