The Beatles: Rare and Unseen

Release date: July 14

Details: MVD Entertainment Group

Rated: Not rated

The lowdown: A DVD that will delight fans of the Fab Four.

What is thought to be the earliest known footage of the Beatles performing in Liverpool in 1962 leads off this collection.

Also included is footage of the group performing in Scotland in 1964, home movies while filming "Help" in the Bahamas in 1965, filming of "Magical Mystery Tour" in 1967, home movies of the group in Paris in 1964 and highlights of a John Lennon interview for a French TV station.

Interviews with people who knew and worked with the Beatles also are featured.

The digital transfer is adequate, considering the age and condition of some of the footage.

Don't miss: No extras.
