

Bruce Springsteen

Road Trip: 40 Years of The Boss

Heartland Rock

★★

We don't need to tell you how incredible Springsteen's shows are. But we would be remiss if we didn't warn you that you won't see — or hear — any of The Boss' music in this unauthorized documentary. What you will get are a slew of critics and talking heads — including former E Street drummer Vinnie (Mad Dog) Lopez — reminiscing about Bruce's glory days. For fanatics only.
