

“Composing the Beatles Songbook: Lennon & McCartney 1966-1970” (MVD Visual) is a documentary exploring the partnership, music, and impact of John Lennon and Paul McCartney as composers during their immensely creative period. The DVD incorporates rare footage, classic performances, and interviews with friends and Beatles historians. Seldom has the genesis of pop songs been put to such careful scrutiny. This DVD will shed light on the combination of talent, artistry, experimentation, and marketing that made the Beatles an unparalleled phenomenon.