He's My Brother She's My Sister – Stream “Electric Love” / Heading To Austin City Limits / New LP Drops This Winter

by New Music Michael on August 16 2012

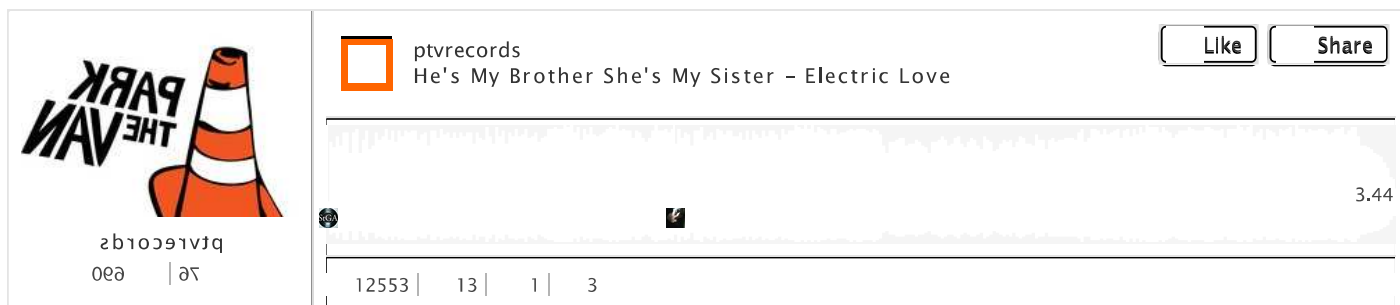

Los Angeles' He's My Brother She's My Sister

He's My Brother She's My Sister (which shall forever be abbreviated as HMBSMS) has just signed with Park the Van Records (Generational, Empress Hotel), who will release the band's newest album "Nobody Dances In This Town" this

In the meantime, the band has a super-intense tour schedule (dates below), including a schwangle through Austin City Limits in mid-October. That'll be a bit of a homecoming for band member Oliver Newell, who hails from the Texas city of lore. The quintet also features sibling vocalists Robert and Rachel Kolar that share singing duties, and percussionist Lauren Brown who not only takes care of the drumming duties but also tap-dances. At the same time? Hell if I know. Is that even possible using the laws of physics as we know them? I don't think so.

Damn they remind me of another band, it's really bugging me. Give me a holler if you can think of who it is.
