

16 Songs To Beat The Winter Blues

Does the dreary weather have you down? Listen to these indie-rock tunes that are so hot you'll barely even notice the wind chill.

From top, Haim, He's My Brother She's My Sister, and Atlas Genius.

The end of January can be a bit bleak: it's cold, it's snowy, and the only thing keeping you going is the distant promise of warmer weather—well, that, and a steady stream of hot cocoa.

To help you take the chill off, we've rounded up some sunny new songs from need-to-know artists like Haim and On An On that are sure to snap you out of that cold weather stupor. The band names alone—Beach Fossils, Vacationer, Pacific Air—will have you counting down the days until spring break.

So turn up your speakers and stream our pick-me-up playlist!
