The Wax Trax! Years (1987-1991)

The late 80's brought us many industrial bands, which included My Life With the Thrill Kill Kult. This band, more often plainly referred to as TTK, has been around since this time and still find much popularity in the underground music world, where most industrial, techno and goth music finds itself hidden. Former band members are too many to list, but the band remains a staple to the industry of industrial music. 2010 has found TTK releasing a "greatest hits", somewhat, of an album, with the distribution aid of MVD Entertainment Group.

The track listing on this CD, Sinister Whisperz, The Wax Trax! Years (1987-1991) is as follows:

And This Is What the Devil Does- originally from 1987's 'I See Good Spirits and I See Bad Spirits'.

Burning Dirt- originally from 1990's 'Confessions of a Knife'.

Do U fear (For Your Child?)- originally from 1987's 'I See Good Spirits and I See Bad Spirits'.

Nervous Xians

The Days Of Swine & Roses- originally from 1990's 'Confessions of a Knife'.

These Remains- originally from 1987's 'I See Good Spirits and I See Bad Spirits'.

Shock Of Point 6

A Daisy Chain 4 Satan- originally from 1990's 'Confessions of a Knife'.

Ride The Mindway- originally from 1990's 'Confessions of a Knife'.

Kooler Than Jesus- originally from 1990's 'Confessions of a Knife'.

LeatherSex- originally from 1991's 'Sexplosion!'

A Girl Doesn't Get Killed By A Make-Believe Lover... Cuz It's Hot

Satana Rising

This compilation is a wonderful collection for any fan of TTK. You probably already have all of their albums, on vinyl, no less, but this disc will give you a great way to listen to most of your favorite while you are driving down the road or taking a walk. As a fitness guru I find TTK's music to be a pretty good soundtrack to work out to. I also find it good for dancing to, or even doing fire poi along with , My personal favorite My Life With The Thrill Kill Kult song is ' Daisy Chain 4 Satan'. I love the beat to this song, I love the lyrics even. It is just an all around perfect example of great music in this genre.
