Chicago's controversial industrial dance music makers chart their history in the first of a series of retrospective compilations.

My Life with the Thrill Kill Kult were pioneers on the industrial/goth/cyber dance music scene in the eighties and early nineties. Their blueprint laid the foundations for the likes of Marilyn Manson, White Zombie and Nine Inch Nails and they were label mates with Ministry, KMFDM and Frontline Assembly.

Mixing eery horror B Movie samples, pumping electronic drum beats, pulsating synths and occult-like overtones; they conjure up images of grind-house horror – probably directed by Rob Zombie, freaky rituals and sadistic pleasure with the dark, gritty, distortion filled soundtrack of their career.

Ungodly (A Daisy Chain for Satan), sinister (Do You Fear For Your Child?) and sexually charged (Leathersex), My Life with the Thrill Kill Kult's Sinister Whisperz is a twisted mix of sacrilegious sleazy disco, psychedelic house and industrial techno.

For fans of pvc and a sense of adventure!
