MVD are releasing the next installment of their Classic Album Under Review series on April/24, and for a Pink Floyd fan, this is a must have DVD. Among the commentators are Norman Smith, who produced some of the Floyd material, right, he sang under the stage name of Hurricane Smith. Peter Banks, an early member of the band, memories of touring with Pink Floyd, and Hugh Hopper a founding member of Soft Machine.

I really enjoyed this critique of an often overlooked album. When people think of Pink Floyd, the album Dark Side Of The Moon that comes to mind. However much of the style in Dark Side is
