Leonard Cohen - "Under Review 1934-1977" DVD - A fine documentary of one of Canada's, if not the one of the world's, most literate and important poet/songwriters, this 87-minute unauthorized critical analysis presents commentary from biographers, band members, and producers, and focuses on Cohen's early work, from his early books of poetry to his LPs like 'The Songs Of Leonard Cohen', 'Songs From A Room', 'Songs Of Love and Hate', and 'New Skin For The Old Ceremony', each of which have inspired artists from every generation since. The inclusion of rare interviews and performances from Cohen himself, as well as music clips, makes this one well-worthy for anyone curious about the history of this unique and decidedly uncommercial wordsmith. Thumbs up here. (Sexy Intellectual via MVD Visual)
