Giveaway – Frank Zappa – The Freak Out List DVD – 2 Winners – Ends 9/26/10

September 13, 2010

Frank Zappa

The Freak Out List

MVD Entertainment
Street date 4/20/10
Documentary – 89 minutes

Description: Frank Zappa published a record of his most important influences on the inside cover of his debut album. This film explores the musical roots of Frank Zappa by putting The Freak Out List under the microscope and tracing the lineage from the most pivotal names therein to the recordings and performances of the man himself. Featuring rare footage of Zappa and the Mothers plus archive film of Freak Out List artists, interviews with The Mothers Of Invention's Ian Underwood, Don Preston and George Duke, 1950s Doo Wop legends, The Cadillacs, contributions from Zappa biographers Ben Watson and Greg Russo, Edgar Varese biographer Alan Clayson and many others.

Frank Zappa was definitely one of a kind. He wasn't someone that could be neatly described in one sentence – far too complex for that. He thought for himself and developed his unique style and unique self.

The Freak Out List DVD is interesting and thought provoking.

I have always loved Zappa- funny thing- when my daughter was a baby, she would cry at the sound of Zappa, and 12 years later- she is still skeptical! Oh, well, thankful she is a good girl!
