Music DVD Review: Frank Zappa - The Freak-Out List | Blogcritics

http://blogcritics.org/music/article/music-dvd-review-frank-zappa-the/

The death of Frank Zappa on December 4, 1993 at the age of 52 cut short one of the most creative, eccentric, brilliant, and prolific careers in modern music history. He released his debut album Freak Out, in 1966. On the inside cover he listed his favorite musicians and performers who had been his most important influences, all 179 of them. The Freak-Out List DVD explores those influences.
