DING DONG DEAD

“You wanted a war...”

Lovely ladies of the night roaming through the neighborhoods not looking for a bite or some guy named “John”. No, these sexy ladies are a gang, known as THE DING DONG DITCHERS. Get your mind off the snack cake aisle and out of the gutter, DDD ring your doorbells and then the fun begins.

Well, this could get old if all the ladies did was ring the doorbell and “ditch” or run off. What fun is there in that? A few giggles maybe, but nothing more. In the night scenes with the ladies, you see them dressed all in black or actually you may only see their shoes and heads as headlights capture their likenesses as they ring and run, back and forth they go and the whole time a sort of catchy jingle is playing, and then they ring Doug’s bell.

“You got one!”

Doug doesn’t like the ringing Ding Dongs and goes a little overboard when one hits him...he strikes back with deadly force. I know this is classified as Horror and but it comes off very comical and I couldn’t stop laughing. The women for all their coolness and prowess can’t escape a man with the many tools, he has at his disposal.

Doug also had an attraction to the lovely MILF Claudia, He makes claims he can’t back up, when he finds the DDD have infested her home. His departure may look like defeat but do not let this fool you, Doug has a plan.

If you want to watch a funny horror comedy, look for Creep Creepersin's DING DONG DEAD! Luke Y. Thompson's portrayal of Doug is spot on and the seemingly goofy aloofness of Doug makes the viewer, sympathize with him from the beginning scene where an early morning phone call leaves him frustrated. He handles the phone call better than most, where I personally would have been cussing and fussing; his mild reaction was noted and told me a little bit about his character. Later when the "incident" with one of the DDD happens, the first assumptions of the mild mannered push-over is altered. Doug is a force to be reckoned with.

Fans of Tara Cardinal will like this movie or anyone looking for something funny after a hard day at work. Give Creep Creepersin's DING DONG DEAD look...might just tickle your funny bone. IF not, this review comes with a shovel...refer to movie, on how to take me out. Just know bullets are faster than swingers.

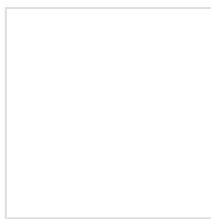

7.5 Out of 10.
