Down In the Flood with Dylan and The Band

08.21.2012

This fall look for Down In the Flood, a new DVD chronicling the musical friendship between Bob Dylan and The Band.

The DVD includes rare footage, archive interviews, and newly discovered photographs along with recent interviews with The Band's Garth Hudson, producer John Simon, Ronnie Hawkins, Nashville session ace Charlie McCoy, and Rolling Stone's Anthony De Curtis.

Let's hope they also include some footage of Dylan and The Band on the road in 1974 when Bob borrowed Robbie Robertson's Epiphone Riviera for most of the tour.
