

A week after the release of Bob Dylan's swirling "Tempest" comes the terrific, British made documentary "Bob Dylan and the Band- Down in the Flood" (Sexy Intellectual/MVD) which chronicles their long association and synergy. Contains many a rare still and video clip, plus new insights from Ronnie Hawkins (who first brought the Band together) and The Band's enigmatic Garth Hudson - who never shows the white of his eyes.

Read

more:http://www.philly.com/philly/blogs/entertainment/music_nightlife/171187385.html#ixzz27nEwaBX1

Watch sports videos you won't find anywhere else