” The Rolling Stones:Under Review 1975-1983: The Ronnie Wood Years Part 1”

Between 1975 and 1983

Amos Lassen

At the end of 1974, stopped happened to the Rolling Stones. Their two last records were not well received by critics and the lyricists and composers and the members of the band were drifting apart and one of the players was addicted to heroin and left the band. Many wondered if the Stones were finished. Then they found Ronnie Wood who had been a member of a band “Faces” and things began to get better.
