RELIVE THE TENNIS MATCH BETWEEN KING AND RIGGS

EMMA Stone and Steve Carell star in “Battle of the Sexes,” based on the true story of the 1973 tennis match that changed the game of tennis, and the world, in this $29.98 DVD from 20th Century Fox Home Entertainment. When the women’s tennis champion Billie Jean King (Stone) battled former men’s champ Bobby Riggs (Carell), history was made — and this film celebrates their contest. Billie Jean was 29 years old, at the top of her game and fighting for women’s rights when the retired Riggs — claiming, at age 55, he could beat any woman — challenged her to a showdown that became the most watched tennis match in history.

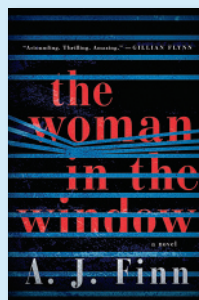

GLOBETROTTING caper film “The Adventurers” is filled with action and humor as the world’s top thieves join forces to pull off the heist of a lifetime. Hong Kong superstar Andy Lau plays a charismatic thief planning to steal precious jewels in Europe while French icon Jean Reno is the tenacious detective determined to stop him. The DVD is available for $29.98 from Well Go USA Entertainment.

HEARTFELT comedy “The Tiger Hunter” captures a young immigrant’s pursuit of success, love and the American dream. The story of ambition, failure and misfit friends is an endearing, old-fashioned comedy about a young Indian man who travels to 1970s America to become an engineer to impress his crush and to live up to the legacy of his father, a legendary tiger hunter back home. The DVD is $29.99 from Shout! Factory.

CHUCK Berry, Eddie Cochran, Jackie Wilson, Ritchie Valens and the Cadillacs star in the quintessential 1950s rock ‘n’ roll movie “Go, Johnny, Go!” available on DVD for $19.99 from MVD Entertainment Group. It’s a musical journey that will have you bopping along with some of the era’s great and enduring performers.

THE gripping psychological thriller “The Woman in the Window,” by A.J. Finn, is a reimagining of Alfred Hitchcock’s “Rear Window” set in the current day. The story of an agoraphobic woman who believes she has witnessed a horrible crime will captivate readers in the new hardback published by William Morrow for $26.99.
