Jonathan Winters Final Approach CD, Characters abound

By April MacIntyre Apr 20, 2011, 4:40 GMT

His new CD from Uproar, "Final Approach," is dedicated as such: "This CD is for people that have an unusual sense of humor."

One of the bright spots in last season's Showtime comedy series "Green Room with Paul Provenza" was the legendary comic Jonathan Winters, appearing with the younger comics, still fast and strong.

His new CD from Uproar, "Final Approach," is dedicated as such: "This CD is for people that have an unusual sense of humor."

Winters is a mentor and muse for so many. Robin Williams, Bill Cosby, and Richard Lewis but a few.

Winters' brand of comedy was built on many odd characters over the years, and the new album - comprised of 12 tracks - brings an interview (by Bob Shaw) of Winters as one of the characters that inhabit his head (100-year-old man, "French Director", Swedish Bowler," "Leading Terrorists," 700-pound man", "Maude Frickett").

My favorite segment was the "French Movie Director," as Winters is apoplectic that Jerry Lewis took the The French Legion of Honor award.
