It's been a while since we've heard anything from the folks behind The Disco Exorcist, but as proof that good things come to those who wait, today we have the film's poster debut along with details on its February 12th premiere in Providence, Rhode Island.

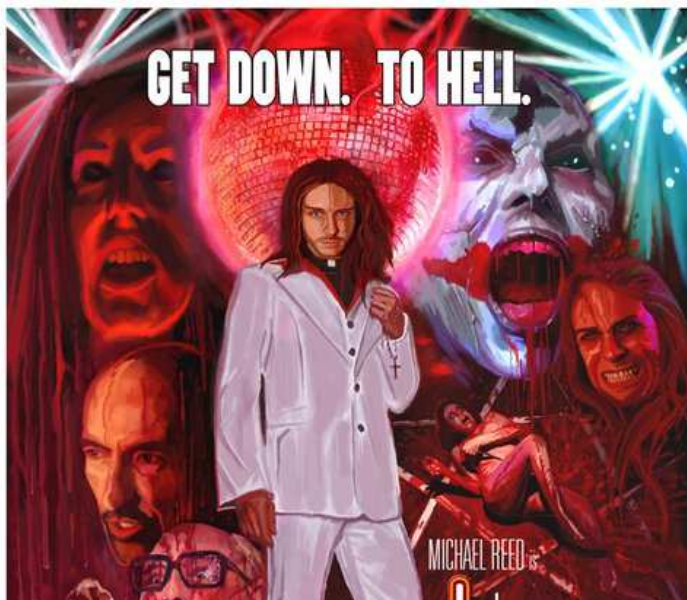

From the Press Release:

Scorpio Film Releasing presents the poster for their newest film, THE DISCO EXORCIST. The poster is a beautiful piece of work by artist Stephen Romano, the visual genius behind the Shock Festival book and DVD, among the original posters for Scorpio Film Releasing's past films Nun of That and Beyond the Dunwich Horror.

THE DISCO EXORCIST, a 70's horror epic full of boogie, blood, and boobs, stars Michael Reed, Sarah Nicklin, Ruth Sullivan, Brandon Luis Aponte, Rich Tretheway, Gio Castellano, and Babette Bombshell as "Bernie Mungbat". THE DISCO EXORCIST was directed by Richard Griffin, produced by Ted Marr, written by Tony Nunes, and photographed by Jill Poisson.

THE DISCO EXORCIST will have its world premiere at the beautiful Cable Car Cinema and Cafe in Providence, Rhode Island, on February 12th at 11pm. Tickets will be $9.00 at the door. Why so late, you might ask? Well, THE DISCO EXORCIST is a film of a highly adult nature ... and due to shocking scenes of sex, violence, and nudity, nobody - we mean NOBODY - under 18 will be admitted into the theater!
