CLUTCH/Full Fathom Five (Pro Rock) I never thought much of this band, but I must say they sound a million times better live than on the few songs I have heard on the radio. The tunes on this are bone crushing heavy numbers with yes a bit of the grunge thing to them, but the songs are pretty cool so who gives a rays ass. The band sound tight and this was recorded in 4 different spots and I may have to re check out this band. Very heavy stuff here. Info:
