content/uploads/2013/07/Level42Live.jpg) Main Plot Points:

- Recorded live at London's Town and Country Club in March 1992 at the end of their Guaranteed Tour, Level 42 perform to a sell-out crowd.
- Lead vocalist and iconic bassist Mark King extols the virtue of pure musicianship in the band's 80's classics like Something About You, Running in the Family, Hot Water and The Sun Goes Down.

What We Thought:

- Level 42 putting out a live DVD? This must be a mistake.
- Nope, it's not. This is a new DVD featuring a live concert from the popular English pop/rock/jazz/funk band from the '80s and '90s.
- Turns out the concert was from 1992, so that's good. This way you're not getting the band 20 years after their heyday. This is them at their prime.
- The show was recorded at London's Town and Country Club in March 1992 at the end of their Guaranteed Tour. And man, does the crowd love them!
- This disc includes many of their biggest hits, including Something About You, Running in the Family, Hot Water and The Sun Goes Down.
- I was never really all that familiar with the band's music, but they sound pretty good live. It's clear that these guys are top notch musicians, and they put on a pretty good show.
- I'm not a Level 42 fan, but if you are one, this is a great live DVD. It's the band you love playing the songs you love before they fell from the spotlight.
