David Bowie

The Document Unauthorized

INTERVIEW CD: Over 65 minutes of interviews with the man himself, in which he speaks on all manner of subjects, from his songs, his philosophy, and his influences, to his friends and colleagues, other bands and musicians and his own family. Always intelligent and enthralling, Bowie never fails to delight on these 10 separate recordings spanning the 'Golden Years' of David Bowie (1969 – 1983).

ORIGINS OF A STARMAN DVD: A visual celebration of the music and history of David Bowie, this documentary film contains rare archive footage and exclusive interviews with the man, and the people that know him best. With extensive contributions from his closest collaborators and with analysis from his biographer, several esteemed music critics and even the dearly departed John Peel, this program also includes many unpublished photos, numerous location shoots, news clips and a host of other features.
