

BLINK 182

PUNK POETS

The new-school punk trio blink-182 formed back in the early 90's, since then they managed to release eight albums, and a number of singles, the majority of which reached Top Ten status both sides of the Atlantic. Having played sold out shows across the world; selling millions of records, collecting awards and achieving a devoted global fan base, Blink 182 are no doubt one of the most successful bands of this Millennium. The bands Greatest Hits album is out now and includes bonus tracks and an additional DVD of live footage of the band.

This film is a detailed account of their phenomenal success, right back to the early days when the band first got together and up to present day.

Using interviews with the group and those close to them, as well as behind the scenes footage, Punk Poet goes where the cameras haven't previously been to produce an uncensored look at a truly extraordinary band. This DVD is a must for all Blink 182 fans.

- The complete and unauthorised DVD biography of Blink 182.
- Includes interviews with the band themselves, and with close friends, colleagues, family members, teachers, journalists and others.
- Rare footage of Blink 182, much previously unseen and from all stages of their career is included throughout the program, as well as numerous unpublished photographs, many from private collections.
- The film also includes location shoots from their hometowns and from other areas connected to their story, event locations and personal testimonies of their early days and rise to stardom plus a host of other features.
- DVD special features include; extensive interactive Blink 182 discography, digital trivia quiz, special 'beyond DVD' section and more.
