With more than 20 years in the music business and numerous best-selling albums under their collective belt, Bon Jovi are undoubtedly the kings of stadium rock.

Despite the trappings of the Rock n' Roll lifestyle, these New Jersey boys continue to provide their own unique, anthemic brand of American rock metal.

This 60 minute DVD features exclusive interviews with those who were with the band, minute by minute, on their rise to superstar status as well as trusted insiders within the Bon Jovi camp.

Includes:

- An in-depth examination of the area where Jon Bon Jovi grew up and still lives today, including special local information on his favorite hang-out places.
- Extensive examination of the music - both past and present - including interviews with key personnel who have been crucial in creating and maintaining the classic Bon Jovi sound.
- DVD special features include interactive trivia quiz and extensive Bon Jovi discography.
