Follow the journey of how a little girl from the projects of Newark, New Jersey became a Queen in Hip Hop, jazz and on the silver screen. She has worked with the likes of Denzel Washington, Steve Martin, Danny Devito, Ice Cube, Will Smith, and LL Cool J. See how Queen Latifah also known as Dana Owens has built an entertainment empire amidst adversity.

Although she struggles everyday to get over her brother's death, she still maintains her reign and is well on her way to making an even bigger name for herself in the entertainment industry.

You will see how the inspiration of Hip Hop created one of the most talented African American females in History. She is not only talented, but very generous. She is one who definitely cares about being a role model and giving to those less fortunate than herself never forgetting where she came from. Witness how a Queen went from "Setting It Off" to "Bringing Down the House" in "Chicago".
