The Murder City Devils have come to represent the pure, raw, and dark Rock & Roll side of present-day punk. It was in Seattle in 1997 that Spencer Moody (vox), Dan Galluci (guits), Derek Frudesco (bass), Nate Manny (bass & guits) and Coady Willis (drums) culminated from other bands such as The Deathwish Kids and The Unabomers to create one of the most influential bands of the early 21st century.

Rock & Roll Won't Wait, a film by James Bazan and Jeff Baker, is an inside look at a year in the life, on and off the road, of one of the most notorious bands of this era. It features live performances, rare glimpses backstage, and scores of interviews with the band, their fans, and their families. Also includes footage of their opening gig for Pearl Jam in 98' when Eddie and Spencer sang the classic Dead Boys' tune, "Sonic Reducer".
