THE PIXIES

a film about

loudQUIETloud is an intimate portrait of the band members and their trying, tense and ultimately triumphant return as one of rock music's greatest bands.

When college rock darlings the Pixies broke up in 1992 on the cusp of mainstream success, their fans were shocked and dismayed. When the Pixies reunited in 2004, those same fans and legions of new listeners were ecstatic and filled with high hopes. loudQUIETloud follows the rehearsals and the warm up shows for the full-fledged, sold out reunion tour. It also catalogs, in the cinema verite style of the Rolling Stones' "Gimme Shelter" and Bob Dylan's "Don't Look Back", the less glamorous side of the touring band lifestyle, getting as close to this enigmatic act as anyone is ever likely to get. Old wounds have not completely healed and the extreme pressure of the tour takes its toll on the band, who nonetheless deliver the goods onstage. LoudQUIETloud captures the Pixies, their families and their fans in what seems to be a once in a lifetime chance at rock n roll redemption.

THE PIXIES

"The filmmakers captured live footage from a number of concerts and were given consistent, personal access to the quartet on and off-stage. "loudQUIETloud" also emphasizes the personal issues of each of the band members. Cantor and Galkin capture bassist Kim Deal's struggle with sobriety, drummer David Lovering's floundering career prior to the reunion, frontman Frank Black's desire to nurture his relationship with his pregnant girlfriend and children and guitarist Joey Santiago's race to finish projects outside of the tour."
