Abomination

Abomination

Abomination was founded in Chicago in 1987, a time when thrash metal infected every other genre on the heavy music scene. Thus the band's style, deriving from crushing death metal, involved thrash, but also hardcore and punk elements, all conjoining in one tasty mixture of technique and aggression. In 1990 Abomination signed a deal with Nuclear Blast and soon their self titled debut hit the stores. The music immediately overwhelms the listener with a wall of heavy guitars and angry thrash-like vocals. The band is taking no prisoners. This reissue comes as a numbered digipack edition.
