

EAST BAY RAY AND THE KILLER SMILES

Dead Kennedys
guitarist
East Bay Ray's
killer new punk band!

LEGENDARY DEAD KENNEDYS GUITARIST EAST BAY RAY and current Dead Kennedys vocalist SKiP McSkipster have formed an exciting new band, The Killer Smiles. Drummer Steve Wilson of Tatu and bassist Greg Reeves round out the lineup. Their debut album was guided by producer (and Butthole Surfers guitarist) Paul Leary, best known for producing Sublime's massive self-titled CD and their single "Santeria." For its members, the name Killer Smiles invokes images of wolves in sheep's clothing and silver-tongued phonies, those masks people wear to hide their true intentions and con others. A new classic worthy of the band members' heavy reputations!
