X: THE UNHEARD MUSIC takes long, detailed, and often funny look at the LA music scene of the late 70s and 80s and focuses on the group that critics had singled out as the leader of the underground pack. The Unheard Music is a documentary that combines live footage of the band and interviews with the four members (as well as their friends and families) with surreal music videos and montages of newsreel footage and vintage television commercials which help to illustrate X's uphill struggle against the music industry. Their story rings true even today. Bonus interviews and more.

Bonus Materials:

- John & Exene Dialogue
- Interview with Angel City
- Some Other Time (Live Outtake)
- Original Theatrical Trailer
- The Unheard Music Songbook
